

Do you know an exceptional educator, administrator, or support staff member in your school that inspires their students and colleagues? The Kane County Regional Office of Education invites you to nominate them for Kane County Educator of the Year! Nominees should be passionate individuals in any Kane County school, public or private, PreK-12, who plan to continue an active role in education.

School representatives and nominees will be cordially invited to the 50th Kane County Educator of the Year banquet, which will serve as a celebration educational staff in all roles, as well as a showcase of the impact they make on their students and their communities.
